

Theoretic Welcomes Ill-Legal?

admin, Tuesday 07 December 2010 - 17:04:04

We've been a bit busy here at Theoretic HQ over the last couple weeks. We've got our new website up, we have a killer new release from the talented Timely Aiah, and now we'd like to welcome Ill-Legal? to the Theoretic family.

Ill-Legal? has been a staple in the Arizona scene for years, constantly pushing that bass driving sound to crowds around the area. We've always been a fan of his mixing and track selection and we're happy to have him on board representing Theoretic.

While you're here, check out his latest mix, Ill Intentions.
